

2009 Book Award Criteria

WELLESLEY: Catherine Hare

Female junior student who best exemplifies a drive to achieve, intellectual curiosity, and social awareness. Possess great leadership in the classroom, on the field or in her community. She should also have a passion or area of interest that distinguishes her from her peers.

WASHINGTON & LEE UNIVERSITY: Jeffrey Prouty

Junior who exemplifies the qualities of honor, academic excellence, strength of character and leadership.

WAKE FOREST: Julian Tigler

Junior with commitment to liberal learning, openness to new ideas and the pursuit of truth, and recognition of his/her responsibility to serve and guide society. Leader within and outside of the classroom and a role model of conduct for other students. Book awarded: The Complete Collected poems of Maya Angelou

SEWANEE: John Haskell

Junior with GPA of 3.4/4.0 in college prep course of study, PSAT score of 60 or above. Top 20% of class and leadership role within the school. Book awarded: Walden by Thoreau embossed with the University crest on the cover.

HARVARD: Debolina Banerjee

Junior who displays excellence in scholarship and high character, combined with achievement in other fields.

YALE: Daniel Salo

Junior who exhibits outstanding personal character and intellectual promise.